

WAS OBLIGED TO USE CRUTCHES

Plight of a Michigan Woman Before She Found the Remedy That Cured Her Rheumatism.

For years evidence that rheumatism is curable by Dr. Williams' Pink Pills has been published.

That hundreds of people have tried the treatment with good results is shown by the increasing number of cures reported.

Every sufferer from this most painful disease who does not try this treatment is neglecting the most hopeful means of recovery as is shown by the statement of Mrs. A. B. Bixby, whose address is R. F. D. No. 2, Pontiac, Mich. She says:

"A few years ago I began to be troubled with dreadful pains in my right hip. It grew worse rapidly and I was obliged to walk with crutches, while the increasing pains nearly drove me wild. My appetite was poor, I was reduced in weight and had to be helped to bed. My general health was very poor. I lost in strength from night events and as I had a cough many of my friends thought I was going into consumption."

"I doctored for a long time and went to Detroit to see a specialist, but received no benefit. My brother-in-law, while on a visit, begged me to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills as he had known of some remarkable cures they had made. I did not have much faith in them but was willing to try most anything. I had taken two boxes before I was certain they were benefiting me. My improvement was steady from then on, my appetite became good and the pain less. I continued using the pills until cured and I feel better than in years."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists, or will be sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50 cents per box; six boxes $2.50, by the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

Thirty Thousand People Applaud Barnum & Bailey's Wonderful Show.

MANY STARTLING FEATS

Only Criticism Is That Spectator Gets Too Much for His Money
All at Once.

Under the long canvas dome, fully 30,000 people saw the excellent circus performance of Barnum & Bailey yesterday afternoon and last night. Not one of those present felt inclined to think of disputing the title claimed by this presentation, "The Greatest Show on Earth." From the opening pageant to the time when the big brass band played the final number, "The Star Spangled Banner," people of all ages and conditions gazed in wonder on the kaleidoscope scene, shifting quickly from one act to another, while acrobats in tights and clowns in ridiculous get-ups ran hither and thither.

It is simply beyond the power of the human eye to see all the acts at the same time in the five rings spread out before the audience. When the clowns add themselves to the spectacle, bewilderment complete takes possession of the onlooker. While in the midst of absorbed contemplation of some thrilling aerial feat, his attention is arrested by laughter from one side and applause from another.

Marvelous in a Degree.
Progress shows itself in a circus, as well as in other things. The feats of daring are more marvelous each year, and in all the acts that go to make up the show there seems to be no end of ingenuity and novelty. Nowhere was this better illustrated than in the acrobatic stunts. Combinations of aerial feats were executed that seem too wonderful to believe.

The grand march opened the performance, displaying the horses and people of the company, and giving indisputable proof of the immense size of the aggregation. From that event on until the end there was an incessant moving picture of skill and wizardry and wonder.

A novel feature, with a strong appeal to the sense of the unusual and the picturesque, was the balloon horse, according to the top of the big tent on a platform over which was stretched a long oval canopy. The snow-white steed, with his woman rider, surrounded by a blaze of pyrotechnic glory, was a unique feature of the program.

La Belle Victoria, who truly deserved her name, was a wonder of wonders on the black wire. She seems to have conquered completely the laws of gravitation and equilibrium, for she swung to and fro, describing a semi-circle in the air, and never once faltered in position. Catching a small board, she placed it perpendicular to the wire, jumped on it, and scesawed on the swaying wire, sliding up one side and then down the other, while breathless multitude every minute expected to see her break her neck.

Great Bareback Riding.
The bareback riding was of the very highest class, and Charles Siegert, Orrin Davenport, and Fred Derrick turned somersault after somersault on the backs of rearing horses, sometimes starting on one horse and then landing on one coming on behind. A thrilling sight was when one after another of six equestrians landed on the back of one flying horse, ending up in an ideal "pyramid" of the sexes.

The trapeze part of the circus was finely done. Whirling through the air with unerring precision, bodies twisted through space to outstretching arms, somersaults, shooting from one to another. Three sets of trapezes were in full swing simultaneously, and it seemed that the air was filled with flying people, who found their way around as well as they could have done on the ground.

Ancient among the features though it was, the trick mules brought forth round after round of hearty laughter. The usual offer of a reward was made and many a circus prospective win-

Former Virginian and Congressman Glass Speak Separately at Luray.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] LURAY, VA., October 18.—Congressman Carter Glass, of Lynchburg, and Captain John S. Wise, of New York City, were the star attractions of the political rally day at Luray today. The Democrats extended a challenge for Mr. Wise to have a joint debate with Mr. Glass, but the challenge was declined. The Lynchburg Congressman had the courtesy to decline the challenge, but the New York City captain immediately upon the conclusion of the Democratic address.

Courthouse Was Filled.
The courthouse was filled during both speeches. Mr. Glass' address was mainly directed to a discussion of State issues. Discussing the charge of "ring rule" urged against the Democratic party, he said the Democratic ticket was nominated by a convention of free men from any compulsion, while the Republican ticket was nominated at Newport News by a convention entirely dominated by a few Federal office-seekers. Captain Wise, not knowing fifteen minutes before his nomination what honors were to be thrust upon him.

Not a Republican office-holder was appointed in the State except with the consent of Boss Sweeney. The speaker further asserted that the privilege of appointing minor Federal offices was farmed out to favorites of the bosses. Mr. Glass dwelt at some length upon the unsavory features of the Republican administration in West Virginia. The Virginia Republican promises and platform declarations as to schools, pensions for Confederate veterans and admission of negroes to the finances were mercilessly contrasted with the record of the party, particularly of the time when it was in the ascendant in the State. Mr. Glass' speech was one of the most effective ever delivered here.

With the exception of a reference to John E. Massey, Captain Wise's address was characterized by moderation and great good humor. He dwelt mainly upon the past and said very little as to State issues except those of Readjuster days.

He went from here to speak at New Market. He has several other appointments in the State.

FOUR SPEAKERS IN JOINT DEBATE

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
SUFFOLK, VA., October 18.—Declaring that since his election he would until election meet in debate any reputable Republican at any time and anywhere, Judge Samuel W. Williams, Democratic nominee for Attorney General, today Courthouse accepted challenges for a joint discussion.

It was a four-handed game, in which two Democrats and two Republicans sat in. The challenge came from Dr.
H. A. Dehorne, Republican county chairman. The speakers came in this order, the second and fourth being Democrats: National Committeeman Alvah H. Martin, L. Willoughby Egan, D. Lawrence Granger and Judge Williams. Democratic Chairman Frank Story presided. The building was packed to its doors. It is said to have been the first joint debate at Courtland since the war. State and national issues, as well as the candidates' personalities, were discussed.

The Sabbath Convention.
ASHLEYVILLE, N. C., October 18.—The fourth annual Sabbath convention, the object of which is the preservation of the Christian Sabbath, will be held here November 4-10. The annual address will be delivered by Dr. R. P.
Campbell, of Asheville, president of the association. The sessions will be held at Central Methodist Church.

SALE BY PUBLIC AUCTION

THREE VERY ATTRACTIVE MEDIUM SIZED DWELLINGS AND FOUR ACRES OF LAND, ON NEW OS-BORNE TURNPIKE, ABOUT ONE-MILE EAST OF THE CITY AND ADJACENT TO C. & O. YARDS.

At the request of the owner, who is a non-resident, we will sell by public auction, on the premises, the above described property, to wit: A three-story six-room dwelling, with stable, chicken house, sheds, etc.; also a neat five-room cottage, comparatively new, and an attractive four-room cottage, with bath room and other improvements. A store built on the corner lot would make a fine business stand.

This property is very attractively located, being on C. & O. Yards, the spoke and Hub factory and other large manufacturing plants, and joins the land of R. L. Harrison, Webb Sydnor, Sears and others, and is occupied by first class tenants at a paying rental. The property will be offered as a whole or in parcels, to suit the views of bidders.

The owner, a non-resident, is determined to sell, so a great bargain may be expected.

TERMS: Liberal and announced at sale.

circus has down on the program.
Those who drifted with reluctant feet out of the big main tent yesterday wished that they might see it again, for it is a first-class show, in which the performance tallies with the advertisements, and that is something that cannot be said of every circus on the road to-day.

By 11 o'clock last night the canvas city had resolved itself again into poles and folds and wagons, leaving behind thousands of people who had really got their money's worth. And the little boys, whose eyes were so wide-open yesterday afternoon, clasp their bursting blue balloons to their hearts in tender memory of a trip to the land of wonders.

ROADS MEETING IN ALEXANDRIA

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
ALEXANDRIA, VA., October 18.—A good roads meeting was held this afternoon at Alexandria Courthouse, when addresses were made by State Senator Charles Lassiter and St. Julien Wilson, of the State Highway Commission, both of whom outlined the many advantages of good roads.

A permanent organization was attendant effected, with the election of the following: A. D. Torrayon, president; A. H. Grathouse, secretary; Dr.
Taber Johnson, W. C. Wheat, and Dr.
D. N. Rust, vice-presidents; George H.
Rucker, treasurer.

A movement is being agitated to bond the county for the improvement of fifty miles of roads. This question doubtless will be submitted to the voters before long. About twenty of those present became identified with the State Good Roads Association.

Previous to the good roads meeting a political meeting was held, which was addressed by Senator Martin.
Representative Carlisle and Robinson Moncure, the latter Democratic nominee for the House of Delegates. Both Senator Martin and Mr. Carlisle paid their respects to the Republican party and its principles and ridiculed the charge of extravagance on the part of the present State administration. They also denounced Captain Kent's assertion that the party was an office-holding trust.

Senator Martin praised Judge Mann for being the author of the Mann bill, which, he declared, stopped every grogshop on the country cross roads, and rendered the public a service, which should recommend him to the voters.

NOS. 610-614 N. THIRD STREET (NEAR CLAY).
ON TUESDAY, OCTOBER 19, 1909, at 4:30 P. M., on the premises, we will offer at public auction, this most desirable property, consisting of three six-room brick dwellings. The location of this property is unsurpassed for residential purposes, being near the street cars, the market, the business part of the city, and, in fact, convenient to most every place of importance. This property is enhancing in value, and will pay handsomely as an investment, as they are first-class centers, or they will make good homes. The dwellings are comparatively new, and in good order. The lot has a frontage of about 19 feet by a good depth. They will be offered separately or as a whole.

Parties desiring first-class and regular investments will do well to attend this sale, as the owner is anxious to sell.
